ALLEGED VIOLATIONS

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation No. Nature of Noncompliance

1. The defendant shall pay restitution to the victims identified in the Criminal Monetary Penalties section of the Judgment in the amount totaling $199,970.99.

The Court ordered Ms. Carter to pay 10% of her gross monthly income toward restitution once supervision commenced. She has paid her restitution consistently since her supervised release began in December 2011. The U.S. Clerk's Office record reflects she has paid a total of $1,858.80 toward her restitution. The balance is $198,112.19.

Compliance with Supervision Conditions and Prior Interventions:

Yolanda Carter began her two year term of supervised release on December 28, 2011 and is scheduled for completion on December 27, 2013. Ms. Carter has been compliant with all of the conditions of supervision. Since her supervision began, she has been employed with Asurion Inc., and has been promoted on two occasions. She has also maintained a stable residence. All of her drug tests have been negative and she has participated in substance abuse and mental health treatment as directed.

Ms. Carter has expressed understanding that she will need to continue making restitution payments once her supervision has ended. She has paid the ordered $100 special assessment.

U. S. Probation Officer Recommendation:

It is recommended that Ms. Carter be continued on supervision and be allowed to terminate, as scheduled, on December 27, 2013, with the understanding that she will continue to make payments after supervision has ended.

The U.S. Attorney's Office concurs with the probation officer's recommendation.
